

PARKING VIOLATION CVC 22507.8 - NOT DISPLAYING VALID DISABLED PERSON PLACARD

Your vehicle was issued a parking citation for not properly displaying a valid California Disabled Person Placard. If you or your passenger had a valid DP placard on the date of violation, it may be possible to have the citation dismissed (cancelled). This form must be completed and returned with copies of required documentation. You may do this by mail or in person.

Examples of required documentation are displayed on Page 3. We must receive it within 21 days of the citation date or 14 days of the delinquent notice date. The completed form and documentation will be reviewed and verified.  As of April 18, 2005 a $15 charge has been added for an administrative fee to dismiss CVC 22507.8 citations.*

IT IS ILLEGAL TO:

- Lend your placard to another
- Forge a doctor's signature
- Use another person's placard
- Provide false information to obtain a placard
- Alter a placard or placard identification card.
- Possess or display a counterfeit placard.

REMEMBER:

- The only legal use of a placard is its display by the person to whom it is issued. The disabled person does not have to own or drive the vehicle to use the placard.
- Placard abuse or misuse can result in the cancellation and revocation of the placard and loss of privileges it provides. Placard abuse is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than $250, not more than $1000, or by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than 6 months, or by both fine and imprisonment.
- California laws require the surrender of the placard to DMV within 60 days of the death of a placard holder.
- It is considered misuse to display a placard unless the disabled owner is being transported and it is misuse to display a placard which has been cancelled or revoked, to loan your placard to anyone, including family members.
- Misuse is a misdemeanor (Vehicle Code Section 4461) and can result in cancellation or revocation of the placard, loss of parking privileges, and/or fines.
